

Dear _____:

The San Joaquin Human Trafficking Task Force is sponsoring a poster contest for both junior high and high school students. The contest provides an opportunity for students to learn about or deepen their understanding of human trafficking. The contest also provides students a means of joining the movement against this horrific crime by presenting their ideas about the theme in artistic form. Those who enter have the chance to win up to $500 and be acknowledged by the San Joaquin County Human Trafficking Task Force at our annual Human Trafficking End It Summit held on January 11, 2024.

We hope that during this challenging year, you will be able to provide your students with an opportunity to learn about social justice while creating something amazing!

You can download the contest rules and entry form posted at: <https://www.sjcfamilyjusticecenter.com/>.

Please encourage interested students to view the education videos below about human trafficking at:

The theme of this year's contest is "People Are Not For Sale". Make a poster depicting the dignity and human rights that are stolen when people are sold like property into human trafficking. The deadline for students to submit their artwork is December 1, 2023.

The winning prizes in each category are:

1st prize: $500

2nd prize: $250

3rd prize: $125

Teachers and students may receive information about human trafficking at : <https://www.sjcfamilyjusticecenter.com/>.
